Dear Parents/Carers,

Welcome back to a busy new term at South Borough! We are writing to let you know about a couple of changes to our home reading books. In previous years children have brought home books from a range of schemes that may have a numerical stage on.

In order to standardise all of the reading books, we have decided to move over to a colour banding scheme. From Friday 22nd the children will be bringing home reading books with a coloured sticker on the front and they are to choose books from the same colour band each time. Please ignore any number stages written on the books as you may find there are two stages in the same colour band. The children will continue to bring their book bags to school on a daily basis and their reading record will be checked in accordance with each class's timetable.

If a book comes home without colour sticker on it, please let us know so we can band it appropriately. If you have any questions, please speak to your class teacher.

You can find more information and order appropriate level books from:
<https://www.readingchest.co.uk/book-bands>

Many thanks for your continuing support.
